Netherlands

Warnink Advocaat #219519 750ml $28.65

Vivid yellow. Pronounced aromas of fresh egg, vanilla, custard and cinnamon. Full-bodied and sweet with a custard-like consistency and creamy texture. Intensely eggy with a rich "brandy butter" character.

United States

Jack Daniels Tennessee Honey #185959 750ml $31.75

Amber yellow in colour, this liqueur looks a lot like a bottle of clover honey. The nose is sweet and spicy, with solid cinnamon notes and a light floral undertone. The entry opens with clear honey notes which is quickly backed up by a perfect level of cinnamon. There's more spice here than heat and the spice is absolutely dialed in. The cinnamon fades in the mid-palate and gives way to a subtle milk chocolate note which lingers after a fairly swift finish. There's absolutely no heat in the finish, and for a sweet honey liqueur, it impressively doesn't leave a heavy residue on the palate
